

INSTITUTE OF LIFETIME LEARNING Fall, 2005

ILL OFFICE NEW LOCATION

Webb – Brown Academic Center

The Institute of Lifetime Learning Office has a new home. The office is now located in the Webb-Brown Academic Center – Room 201. It is located south of the Brown Center on the corner of 3rd and Washington.

Several classes will also be held in this building this fall. Computer classes will be on the first floor and other ILL classes will be on the second floor. There is an elevator in the building. Be sure to stop by to see the ILL office and this beautiful new building.

Check Out NEW Class On “FINANCIAL MATTERS”

Be sure to enroll in this special class on “Financial Matters”. Clint Combs will cover valuable information that will help you with financial planning. Some of the topics to be discussed are:

- Investment Choices

For Your Information

Winfield Classes – This fall the Institute of Lifetime Learning is cooperating with the Winfield Public Library and the Winfield Arts and Humanities Council on classes. We look forward to working with them on these classes.

ILL Attendance – Class attendance is not required; however instructors work hard to prepare for these classes. Please let your instructor know if you cannot attend class sessions.

New ILL Teachers– This semester Lou Tharp, Casey Eubank, and Clint Combs will be teaching classes. Many thanks to all our teachers for their time and talents.

Classes & Trips – Plans have not been finalized for all classes and trips. Be sure to check at enrollment for any changes.

Relay for Life – The Institute of Lifetime Learning Relay for Life Team had another successful year. The team worked very hard and received a SILVER AWARD. They raised $3071.00 for the American Cancer Society. Thanks so much for your support for this project.
