They will be responsible for all aspects of the magazine, not limited to content, style, tone, design, advertising, and development and execution of content.

Prerequisites:

ENG2211 Composition I and instructor approval.

Controlling Purpose:

This course is designed to increase student knowledge concerning magazine construction, development and content, editing production, advertising, and team collaboration.

Learner Outcomes:

Upon completion of the course, the student will be able to help create, maintain, and develop Mile Marker Review, a bi-yearly magazine. They will work alongside an advisor in holding contests and promotions, selecting the creative pieces for publication, understanding effective specific genre content, designing and maintaining website content, and finding relevance within the student body for the magazine.

Units Outcomes and Criterion Based Evaluation Key for Core Content:

The following defines the minimum core content not including the final examination period. Instructors may add other content as time allows.

Evaluation Key:

- A = All major and minor goals have been achieved and the achievement level is considerably above the minimum required for doing more advanced work in the same field.
- B = All major goals have been achieved, but the student has failed to achieve some of the less important goals. However, the student has progressed to the point where the goals

- of work at the next level can be easily achieved.
- C = All major goals have been achieved, but many of the minor goals have not been achieved. In this grade range, the minimum level of proficiency represents a person who has achieved the major goals to the minimum amount of preparation necessary for taking more advanced work in the same field, but without any major handicap of inadequacy in his background.
- D = A few of the major goals have been achieved, but the student's achievement is so limited that he is not well prepared to work at a more advanced level in the same field.
- F = Failing, will be computed in GPA and hours attempted.
- N = No instruction or training in this area.
