COURSE PROCEDURE FOR

MUSIC THEORY II
MUS2621 3 Credit Hours

Student Level:

This course is open to students on the college level in either the Freshman or Sophomore year.

Catalog Description:

MUS 2621 - MUSIC THEORY II (3 hrs)

This course includes a study of the principles of voice leading; three- and four-voice writing of triads in root position and first and second inversions. Harmonic progression, musical form, cadences, phrases, periods, and non-chord tones are studied in depth. Music Theory II is a requirement of all music majors and should be taken concurrently with MUS2626 Aural Skills II.

Prerequisites:

MUS2620 Music Theory I.

Controlling Purpose:

To continue the presentation of the basic ingredients of music presented in Music Theory I, so that structure, design, and language are made clear to the student. The class will deal specifically with compositional and analysis skills.

Learner Outcomes:

For those students majoring in music, this class will provide the basic material necessary for success in Music Theory III, and IV, and ultimately, success in completing a music degree at any four-year institution.

Units Outcomes and Criterion Based Evaluation Key for Core Content:

The following outline defines the minimum core content not including the final examination period. Instructors may add other material as time allows.

Evaluation Key:

- A = All major and minor goals have been achieved and the achievement level is considerably above the minimum required for doing more advanced work in the same field.
- B = All major goals have been achieved, but the student has failed to achieve some of the less important goals. However, the student has progressed to the point where the goals of work at the next level can be easily achieved.
- C = All major goals have been achieved, but many of the minor goals have not been achieved. In this grade range, the minimum level of proficiency represents a person
