

Cowley College Degree Grid

This certificate is designed so professionals in the information technology field can update their knowledge on the latest security topics. Students majoring in informational technologies should also realize that security has become a major component in computer systems and networking. It is vital in this changing era of computer attacks that everybody in the computer field have the latest information to help safeguard their organizations' information. This certificate can be completed in one semester or over a year. Successful completers will be issued a Certificate of Completion from Cowley College.

INFORMATION SECURITY (Certificate of Completion)
COURSE NUMBER	COURSE NAME	SEMESTER
		1	2	3	4
TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS
CIS1906	Principles of Laboratory Assurance	3
CWB1840	E-Commerce	3
CIS1908	Introduction to Linux/Unix	3
CIS1907	Enterprise Security Management		3
CIS1881	Introduction to Computer Forensics		3
TOTAL HOURS 15		9	6

Depending on skill level and assessment scores, students may be required to take the necessary basic skill or prerequisite courses prior to enrolling in the program.

Revised: April 18, 2016